Donald L Hueth, age 85, passed away at the Frances Mahon Deaconess Hospital in Glasgow on Friday, April 19, 2013.

Donald was born October 20, 1927 to Albert and Hazel (Fladeland) Hueth. After living in North Dakota and Culbertson, Don grew up on the family farm southeast of Glasgow attending school in Glasgow. He worked as a cowboy on local farms and ranches in his teenage years and inherited the nickname "Duke." Don enlisted in the U.S. Marines. After serving in the military, he worked for the Forest Service in Oregon, then Burlington Northern in Harlem, Montana and then for the Valley County Road Department until he retired.

Donald married Leona (Moran) Pecora in 1967. They spent 42 years together raising and running quarter horses in races all over the area. They both enjoyed bingo, gardening, hunting, making choke cherry syrup, jams, and wine. Leona passed away in July of 2011.

Don is survived by one sister Florence Norcutt of Casper, Wyoming, his brother Alan Hueth of San Diego, California, nephews Earl Norcutt of Phoenix, AZ; Russell Norcutt of Glasgow, and Raymond Norcutt of Casper, Wyoming, Terry Hueth of Hawaii and Joe Hueth of Oregon, Tim and Mike Hueth, stepchildren Dolores Brenna of Glasgow and Lou Pecora of Billings, and step grandchildren Marlys Hopkins, Tom Brenna, Daria Brenna, and Theresa McDonald, nieces Bobbi Lou O'Neal, Patty Hardin, and Carol, Jill, and Jackie Hueth.
